President's Corner

Dear EAC members:

Since we are stronger lovers and protectors of our Mother Earth, let's keep finding new ways to lessen our trash by converting it into beautiful art or crafts. It is fun!

I have many things going on to share with you:

Grant application from Wells Fargo. was submitted. We will hear from them by the beginning of September.

Arts Educators grant. Bad news; They do not fund nonprofit organizations.

Our next opportunity is with Arts Culture and Science (ACS). Dead line by the end of September.

The possibilities will be much better once we can get money from grants. But the process takes some time. I need all your help.

As per our bylaws, We have to form A nominating committee in August of each year. It consists of two members selected by the EAC membership, and one member appointed by the Executive Board. This committee shall present a slate of nominated Executive Board members to the October EAC membership meeting.

The show at the Auditorium will go through Sept. I hope you are creating new art; if you are not, come to the meeting and we will create it in there.

Remember that we are going to be at the Broomfield Days on Sept 21st. Also the Rodeo Market Community which is part of the South West Arts Group (SWAG) contacted me and invited us to participate in their Orchard Festival on Sept 28th. I accepted as it is a great marketing opportunity for us. More details will be available soon.

We were also invited to participate in the Denver Arts Week. TBD.

Please come to our next meeting on the 28th. We will be creating new art to be displayed at the Auditorium. Don't forget to bring the Policy Agreement form with the list of your art pieces.
