President's Corner

Dear EAC Members:

I hope this new year is already bringing the achievement of many of your dreams, and you are still full of energy, ideas, and enthusiasm.
In spite of the bad weather and the cancellation of our planned class last Sat. the 21st, we need to keep our focus on the fashion show. With that purpose in mind, Elizabeth will show us how to make necklaces with old t-shirts and Misty will teach us how to do t-shirt weaving and how to repurpose old jeans and old lace blouses into new and unique beautiful tops, pants.

Please bring: old, oversized and colorful t-shirts, pants, laze blouses or equivalent, scissors or a rotary cutter, a needle with thread that goes with the colors of your old materials.

I am including the information about the Fashion Show through the Boulder Art Association. See Boulder Fashion Show information under Shows on the website. We have to decide to enter as a club or as individuals. In either case the price is $20.00 for 3 pieces per individual or per group.
Brighton City Hall started a new show. Isolde and myself participated. I talked to Laurie Maier, the Coordinator for Art programs, about doing something with recyclables and she showed interest in the subject. I will be contacting her soon.

Elizabeth will be investigating the Northglenn Senior Center as a place where to have our monthly meetings at no cost to us.

Misty is our new volunteer as the secretary of EAC. Thank you for your valuable and needed support.

We still have many open positions for the EAC's administrating activities. Please get involved. It is your club, it is very satisfying to help, because we improve the quality of our lives, and grow faster as we increase our accomplishments and possibilities when we work together. Aura
