President's Corner

Dear EAC members:

I hope you had wonderful celebrations for the holidays and you are full of new and great resolutions with regard to EAC for the New 2013 year. I think that we have enough time to implement our new ideas we had over the holidays to create art with. I have several and I am planning to implement some of them for our show at the Broomfield Library for the month of March.

We are beginning to see the benefits from being members of BCAH. They sent us the schedule for their newsletter submissions and publications for the whole 2013 year. This is great because it will help us to plan our activities for the whole year with them.

I finally managed to give in person a thank you card for Donna and Susan from Brighton Collectables in the name of EAC. To refresh your mind, they donated money to BCAH and BCAH in turn included us as one of the beneficiaries with $100.00 which in term, helped us to become members of BCAH. Now that we are Tier III SCFD members through BCAH, we can get many SCFD benefits without being members of SCFD proper. For example, we can attend for free, individually or in group, to many public events to the: Denver Zoo, Denver Museum of Nature and Science, Botanical Gardens, and the Denver Art Museum See:

We can get grants through the BCAH, but we have to pay $450 dollars and we can't yet afford that.

I need help from someone to handle the issue about the raffle. We need more money before it can be finalized. This will help us to get people to know EAC, to get new members and more operational money for the club especially now when we don't have any grants yet.

The demonstrator for the November meeting was Nelli Barklyanskaya. She showed us how to make rings using Fussy Sticks and we had fun doing them.

We also had our Christmas celebration at her lovely house. We had great food, exchanged surprise Christmas presents, and we shared our creations of art using recyclables. We enjoyed the celebration very much. Thank you Nelli.
