President's Corner

Dear EAC Members:

The classes at the Brunner House went well. Unfortunately, it looks like that there is a possibility for the Boulder Fashion show to be canceled because not enough people signed to participate and it will not be worth to do it as it is. We made a significant progress while we were getting ready for the fashion show in Boulder and I think that with some additional effort and more people's participation we can put the show on here in Broomfield. Let's talk about it.

Everyone who is working on this project, please bring what you have done so far in the classes from Bernadine, Elizabeth, and Misty, in order to show everybody else what they lost out on and what they can learn as well.

We have to get ready for the Bazaar at the Armory in Brighton. We will be showing, demonstrating and selling our art and crafts from recyclable plus recruiting more members for our club.

I have not talked to Laurie Maier, the Coordinator for Art programs in Brighton, about doing something with recyclables because the fashion show took all my time. I will be contacting her as soon as I can.

Thank you to everyone who is contributing to the operation of the EAC.

Please start collecting the cans pull ups as we have great uses for them.

We still have many open positions for the EAC's administrating activities. Please get involved. It is your club, it is very satisfying to help, because we improve the quality of our lives, and grow faster as we increase our accomplishments and possibilities when we work together. Aura
