Activities

EAC's monthly meeting on September 30th .

Please notice that we are inverting the order of activities at the meeting to accommodate some people's schedules. Come prepared to participate do create the art first. Also we are going to have a professional Fashion speaker who is going to show us the secrets of having successful fashion shows.

Brunner House Pick up art: Sept 30, after the meeting.

Nov 1st BCAH: Send the information for their web page update.

Fashion Show: Nov 19th. TBD

An introductory show at the Armory is pending. We will know if we are accepted soon.

President's Corner

Dear EAC Members:

The Eco Art Creators Fashion show: Even though we don't have a place finalized to show our fashions yet, we are making progress in creating new clothing and jewelry.

We have the possibility to let people see our fashions in Brighton during the reception of a show in The Armory on November 19th. We will know for sure if we will be admitted soon. This is great as it gives us time to create new things.

We have done a heavy amount of marketing for EAC activities and we are expecting a large number of visitors for our meeting on Sep 30th. Let's hope we will have new members as well.

The Eye for Art program in Brighton is ending and the Holiday Sensations Art Show is starting. I hope that more EAC members are participating.

We had a tent in Broomfield Days: Some People were absolutely fascinated with our product. I think that what we need to grow is more marketing activity. If we want to continue our club's operation.

We have our membership payment due in this meeting. The fees are as follows: $30.00 for individuals, $25.00 for Seniors and $50.00 for families.

Thank you to everyone who is contributing to the operation of the EAC but I need more help to grow as we want, can and should.

We still have many open positions for the EAC's administrating activities. Please get involved. It is your club and it is very satisfying to help because we improve the quality of our lives, learn new things, use our creativity, and grow faster as we increase our accomplishments and possibilities when we work together.
